United Youth Corps is seeking four volunteers to serve as staff members at the South African Family Camp to be held from 25 December 2016 to 1 January 2017 at Camp Nelu, Hekpoort in the Magaliesberg.

These must be spiritually focused individuals who display Christian living and leadership principles, both by word and example. These participants must have a good grasp on what creating “The Zone” for godly growth is all about. These volunteers must be patient, self-motivated and hard working. They must work well with others in a team setting and be able to endure minor hardships without complaint. Participants must be in relatively good health.

This program will benefit the members of South Africa, as it will connect them with dedicated young adults in God’s church who display an attitude of service and care for others. The Youth Corps volunteers will gain a deeper understanding into the value of service to others. They will experience the education of international travel, and see how God’s people live in South Africa. They will learn valuable spiritual lessons that can then be shared in their local congregations.

Personal expenses to participants:

Any immunizations necessary
Any costs associated with obtaining a passport
50% airfare costs

Good Works will provide housing, on-ground transportation, and meal costs outside of camp.
