United Youth Corps will be sponsoring a project in Santiago, Chile from July 30, 2017 until August 13, 2017.

We are seeking two individuals who are passionate about teaching, and are willing to stretch outside of their comfort zone. The project will consist of teaching English, leadership, and speech. The classes will be hosted by the local congregation, and will be opened to community members. Certifications in teaching, English, or speech are preferred, though not required. Those selected must have a positive recommendation from their pastor.

Once selected, applicants will be involved with planning activities for the project. Team members should be able to maintain a positive attitude and be able to adapt to a changing schedule. Proficiency in the Spanish language is necessary.

COST:

Room, board and ground transportation will be provided by the local congregations and Good Works. Participants are expected to provide at least half their airfare costs and any extracurricular activities (costs will vary depending on location of origin).
